FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. FREMONT.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. L. DAYTON.

FOR ELECTORS,
A. EDWARD D. HOLTON,
State at Large, and
TIMOTHY D. HOWE.

SENATOR HAMLIN on Col. FREMONT—Senator Hamlin, of Maine, in closing a recent speech at Worcester, Massachusetts said: "A few words in relation to the gallant man who bears our standard, as I believe to victory. Who is John C. Fremont? He is the first man who discovered the interior of this continent, scaled the Rocky Mountains, and contributed more than any man toward making California a free State. (Cheers.) I know him well, as a man of eminent ability and of unblemished character and spotless life. When California was seeking admission into the Union as a State, I had occasion to confer with him as to the best method to secure that result. He was true to the right. His language was, 'California must come in as a free State or not come in at all.'"

It has been complained of Fremont, that he is without sufficient antecedents, as to his position or qualifications, for the Presidency. But, not only has he antecedents of the right kind, but he is an antecedent in himself. (Declaring applause.) He is a greater executive officer than any man since Andrew Jackson.

John C. Fremont is an anti-slavery man, and has always been one from his boyhood. Although a native of Georgia, and brought up in South Carolina, in spite of his early association he was ever for Freedom. When embarked on his Western tour, he was asked if it was not his intention to purchase a slave, as a domestic for his wife. His reply was, "I never owned one dollar in human flesh, and while reason holds its sway in my brain, I NEVER will. I love my wife with the most ardent affection, but that wife must toil with her own hands, rather than own the first dollar in human flesh. From a man thus educated, and thus true to our principles we have the highest assurance that with him at the helm of the government, if he can prevent it, not one inch shall slavery be extended over the national territory."

THE VICTORIA BRIDGE AT MONTREAL.—The Grand Trunk Railway is to cross the St. Lawrence at Montreal, where it is but 176 feet less than three miles wide, and flows at a rate varying from seven to ten miles per hour. The depth in summer varies from fourteen feet in the middle to four at the sides. Embankments of solid stone are built out from each side till the width is reduced to 5,000 feet or about 23 miles, and this distance is then to be studded with twenty-four piers of masonry, which are to support a tubular bridge somewhat on the plan of the famous tubular bridges in England. The height of the tube above low water in the center is to be sixty feet, descending towards each side at a rate of about forty feet to the mile. The bridge is to cost $7,000,000. The abutments and piers are progressing, and have been for several years, but the bridge is yet a long way from its completion. The total weight of iron in the tubes will be 40,400 tons.

THE SHAM DEMOCRACY OF THE WESTERN DISTRICT are coming out to ascertain who is their most available man to run for Congress. One paper suggests Matt H. Carpenter, one of Bartow's counsel in the gubernatorial contest, another Nelson Dowey.

The Republicans of that district, we presume will re-nominate their present efficient and popular representatives, Mr. Washburn and will elect him by a large majority. Border Ruffianism is at a discount over West.

Fire at Oakshosh.

Before light on Tuesday morning, a fire occurred at Oakshosh, consuming the City Foundry and Machine Shop on High street, owned by Williams & Stearns. Loss $13,000 and no insurance. Also Ward's Steel Plough manufactory, the establishments of L. W. Cross, pump maker, and Davis, Moore & Fowler, painters. A large two and a half story building, owned by Nelson Gill, and occupied by Williamson & Brown, wagon makers and blacksmiths. In the upper part of this building was the Hall of the Sons of Temperance.

MORE ACCUSIONS.—Ira Minard, one of the wheel horses in the Democratic team, in Kane Co., Illinois, is out for Fremont, and a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes that half of the old Democracy of that Co. have followed suit.

MIWAUTIA.—A new town at the head of Lake Superior has been christened Miwauchia. RAIL ROAD CROSSING.—The point for the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad to cross the Wisconsin River, has been permanently located at Kilbourn City.

A Republican Mass Convention will be held at Marston, Juneau Co., tomorrow.

The Racine & Mississippi R. R. is open to E. Haven, Walworth Co.

THE YOUNG MEN'S MEETING.

A TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS!

1,000 Ladies and Gentlemen Present!

The Young Men's Summer, Fremont and Kansas meeting, at Young's Hall, was largely attended, the Hall being filled to overflowing. Over one hundred and fifty ladies were present and we never saw a finer looking audience on any similar occasion.

Prof Stevens' Brass Band enlivened the proceedings with patriotic music, and a choir of young ladies and gentlemen sang songs of Freedom, with Prof. Biederman at the Melodion, the use of which was kindly tendered by T. B. Mason, Esq.

The speakers were principally young men, and their efforts reflected credit upon themselves.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock, by L. L. CROUSE, who nominated MASON G. SMITH for President, which was carried unanimously, when Mr. SMITH came forward and was introduced to the audience.

On taking the chair the President made a brief and eloquent speech, thanking the young men for the compliment bestowed upon him, and promising to perform the duties to the best of his ability.

On motion of A. P. SWINEFORD, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen as Vice Presidents of the meeting:

- First Ward—NORMAN L. BERRICK.
- Second Ward—LORENZO L. CROUSE.
- Third Ward—FRANK B. CULVER.
- Fourth Ward—ISAAC E. SPRINGER.
- Fifth Ward—ALBERT L. WOODEN.
- Sixth Ward—EDWARD L. FITZGERALD.
- Seventh Ward—HARVEY W. DRAKE.

On motion of SAMUEL HOWARD, WILLIAM J. LANGSON and CHAS. E. BISHOP were appointed Secretaries.

On motion of L. L. CROUSE, the Chair appointed a Committee of five, consisting of the following gentlemen, to draft Resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting:

- L. L. CROUSE, J. H. KINGSLEY, A. P. SWINEFORD, THOS. H. BROWN, C. P. SIKEMAS.

During the absence of the Committee, the audience called out and was addressed by SAMUEL HOWARD, FRANK B. CULVER and others. They made soul-stirring and eloquent speeches, and their efforts were not unworthy of older soldiers in the cause.

Calls were then made for JNO. H. KINGSLEY, who announced that the Committee on Resolutions were ready to report.

Mr. CROUSE, Chairman of the Committee, then read the following Resolutions, which were adopted with enthusiastic applause, especially the one in relation to Col. FREMONT:

Resolved, That a great crisis having arrived in the affairs of our nation, when it is eminently important that the position of all men should be known, by their words or their deeds, and that the cause of Liberty should receive, at the hands of its friends, a united and hearty support, therefore—

Resolved, That we, the Young Men of Milwaukee, do hereby declare our firm adherence to the cause of Freedom, both now and hereafter, and forever.

Resolved, That we consider the assault on the person of the Hon. CHAS. SUMNER, not only unparalleled in cowardice and atrocity, but a blow at the rights of Free Speech, at Free Soil, Free Labor and Free Men.

Resolved, That the villainous outrages which have been perpetrated on the Free State settlers in Kansas, which are committed at and sanctioned by the President and his cabinet, are a burning disgrace to any nation claiming to be civilized, and as such, shall receive our unequalled condemnation.

Resolved, That in John C. Fremont we recognize the true friend and advocate of Freedom and Humanity and standing upon a platform which has for its basis the principles of eternal justice, he is entitled to the vote of every true American patriot, and that we hereby tender him our cordial and united support in the coming struggle.

Resolved, That we trust the Almighty in His divine wisdom, will crown the labors of the Friends of Freedom with success, that they may displace from the Presidential Chair, a man utterly unqualified for that high station, and fill it with one of nature's noblemen—John C. Fremont.

Resolved, That we hereby recommend the formation of a Young Men's Fremont Club for the purpose of enlisting us to act efficiently for Freedom during the coming Campaign.

Mr. CROUSE then responded to a call to speak on the Resolutions, in a few remarks, concise and to the point. He defended the right and duty of the Young Men to meet and discuss such matters, and entreated them to use all their influence for the election of JNO. C. FREMONT, and to take immediate steps in regard to their action in the coming campaign.

He was followed by G. F. WESTOVER, of Watwatosa, in an eloquent and glowing speech, which was received with great applause.

Calls were then made for C. T. HOTCHKISS, who came forward and made a short address, appropriate and effective. He then moved that a committee of five be appointed, including the Chair, for the purpose of perfecting the organization of a Young Men's Fremont Club.

The Chair then appointed Messrs. C. T. HOTCHKISS, H. J. PAINE, WM. J. LANGSON, L. L. CROUSE, and M. G. SMITH, such Committee, to procure suitable rooms for the use of the club, and transact such other business as might be found necessary in regard thereto.

In conclusion, S. M. DOUTH and Prof. DANIELS were called upon, and addressed the meeting.

L. L. CROUSE then offered the following Resolution, which was adopted with enthusiastic cheers:

Resolved, That we hereby tender our heartfelt thanks to the ladies who have graced this occasion with their presence, and who have encouraged us, by word and look, to labor on, steadfastly and earnestly, for the glorious cause of Freedom.

The meeting, on motion of I. E. SPRINGER, then adjourned sine die.

Circumstances prevented the Waukeesa delegation from attending, though a letter was received from them, expressing their sympathy with the young men of this city, and promising their co-operation and efficient action in the coming struggle.

A letter and song; was also received from the Rev. S. C. MACKENZIE.

A short and excellent poem, composed by a young sailor, was also in the hands of the President, which, together with the other letters and songs were designed to be read, but the time spent in speaking, and the lateness of the hour prevented it. We publish the poem in another column.

On the whole, the meeting was a decided success. Excellent order was preserved, and all passed off happily. The committee of arrangements are deserving of all praise for the manner in which the meeting was carried out. Nine cheers for the young men of Milwaukee say so.

MEETING AT WAUPUN.

At a meeting of the citizens of Waupun, held on the evening of June 26th, 1856, to consider the subject of the outrages perpetrated on their brethren in Kansas, and to express their sympathy for them in their present hour of trial, Rev. S. H. ASHMAN was called to the chair, and Charles Smith was appointed Secretary.

Jesse Hooker, Rev. Henry Amason, J. C. Snow, Geo. Grannis, and Isaac Johnson were appointed a committee on resolutions, who reported the following which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the people of Waupun deeply sympathize with their brethren in Kansas, and stand ready with all the weapons that God and Nature have placed in their hands to resist them in their noble efforts to make that fertile and beautiful garden of the West a free State.

Resolved, That the Border Ruffians in their treatment of the Free State Men in Kansas that Rust in his assault upon Greeley and Brook in his brutal attack upon Sumner have only exhibited the true spirit of Slavery which is based upon the principle that might makes right.

Resolved, That Freedom or Slavery is the great issue of this time, that we are in a crisis which will result (as we of the north shall determine) either in the peaceable overthrow of Slavery, or in its extension over all the territories and the Free States, reducing us to the condition of slaves.

Resolved, That the Free State men in Kansas have submitted to the abuse and indignities heaped upon them by a Border Ruffian Administration till "forbearance ceases to be a virtue" and no alteration is left but a resort to "one means as will effectually drive the invaders from the territory."

After listening to an able and interesting address from Prof. Daniels, material aid to the amount of $45.25 was contributed by the meeting, and pledges to the amount of $34.00 per month, till Kansas becomes a Free State were received.

A Kansas Aid Society was organized, and the following officers appointed. Jesse Hooker, President, Charles Smith Secretary, and A. P. Starkweather Treasurer.

J. H. ASHMAN President.

Buchanan and the Border Ruffians.

[From the Gallop-Sarg Free Press, June 2nd.]
Mr. J. F. Bliss, who has just returned from Kansas, made the following statement to us, which, at our request he reduced to writing and testified to under oath:

STATEMENT OF J. F. BLISS.

I was in Col. Rich's Store at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas Territory, on Friday, June 13th, 1856, and listened to a conversation between Judge Leecompte and some other gentlemen, unknown to me, relative to Gov. Robinson and the other prisoners, and likewise, the policy of President Pierce in regard to Kansas affairs. One of the great men expressed his fear to the orthodoxy of Mr. Buchanan on the slavery question. Leecompte replied that he had letters from some of Buchanan's friends, and that he would pursue the same policy that Pierce had—but that it must be kept still in order to carry Pennsylvania and New York; and, said Leecompte, "he will fool old Reader into supporting him, too. Old Buck is all right, boys, don't fear him."

The above is, in substance, the conversation that passed in my hearing, of which I made a minute at the time.

J. F. BLISS.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, } COUNTY OF KNOX.

GALESBURG, June 25, 1856.
This day personally appeared before me J. F. Bliss, whose name is attached to the above statement, and testified under oath that the above is, in substance, and as near as he can recollect, in words, the conversation which he heard between Judge Leecompte, of Kansas, and others.

CHAUNCEY WHITE.

Justice of the Peace.

I hereby certify that I have known Mr. J. F. Bliss for several years, and consider him a honorable man in every sense of the word.
E. F. WICKER,
Commissioner Merchant.

GALESBURG, Ill., June 25th, 1856.
How any man in favor of the Freedom of the Territories can support Buchanan after reading the above, is beyond our comprehension. Mr. Bliss voted for Pierce in 1852.

THE CURSES OF SLAVERY.—The Rhode Island Congregationalists have withdrawn fellowship from the Presbyterians of both General Assemblies. The twenty churches of Rhode Island, or rather a majority of the twenty churches, have voted to discontinue all correspondence with the three thousand Presbyterian churches in the North, South and West. The bond of union was dissolved at Providence. Cause—the position of the Presbyterians on the slavery question.

EXPRESS ROBBERS CONVICTED.—White, Ayer, and King, the three men on trial at Detroit for robbing the Express Co. of $50,000 in specie.

CAN'T GO IT.—The Pulaski Democrat, the democratic organ for Eastern Oswego county N. Y., refuses to give the Buchanan ticket. It editor Mr. Hatch, was the democratic candidate for Senator last fall.

FOR FREMONT AND FREEDOM.—The Hartford, Connecticut, Press says, "Charles Parker, Esq., of Meriden, who was one of the electors of this State that voted for Franklin Pierce in 1852, declares himself openly and unequivocally for Fremont and Freedom."

SEN STRUCK.—The Waukeesa Democrat on the 24th, says, "We understand that a Swiss named Humbert, was run struck, in the town of Brookfield, on Wednesday last, from the effects of which he died on Saturday."

PLOWING MATCH.—A plowing match came off at the farm at Henry P. Savage, in Lisbon Waukeesa county, on the 26th ult. The prize was awarded as follows:
James Howitt, first prize.
William Lamb, 2d do.
Andrew Howitt, 3d do.

NEW COURT HOUSE.—A new Court House, at a cost of not less than $15,000 is to be erected at Hudson, St. Croix Co.

THE HUNTING LAND.

BY HARRY HAZELTON.

An early summer's sunny day
Had passed, and gentle evening
Approached again. No searching ray
Of sun came forth, nor cloud denied
The chains of Luna—by the side
Their comrades, brightly and brightly,
The twilight stars in beauty shone,
While gentle zephyrs came in wild delight,
And pensive, whisper that the still night.

Of former days, when on the still
And moonlight later, sunning over
The distant glens, and woodland hill,
The leafy tree, and poplar shore,
The dusky warrior's plant
Dipped the calm waves' untroubled fold—
Of Councils held in secret of zone
Marked by the unworldly dying, and the dead,
And trampled o'er by friends and foes of old.

And now they tell you of the mid
Who gazed in his death hour
Adown the "Sword," and the shade
Of forest trees, the faint dark
Beard that his mother's smile. But look!
A stranger came with rattle-bellied,
And came a forest shadow, dark
Of all, they said, but cannot tell of
The new world's life in happy hunting land!

The warrior takes his last adieu
Of the forest land which he had won
The white man's eye, the last farewell
Till the comrades had begun
That last long trail. The setting sun
Fades, and the shadows of the night
A new world's life in happy hunting land!
While murmuring that the day is over,
And the music of the wind,
A change came over the hunting ground—
A woman's foot the spot defiled!
Nay, the day, with all of bound,
Still from the forest land, could
To the sunset and stern decay,
The seeker home, with the wild,
Untrodden forest of the night,
And happy, in the night, in the night!

THE STORM.

BY JAMES F. MCNEIL.

A wild, thick, and a howling
A "West-ward,"
And the lightning, and the storm,
Gusts and squalls and squalls.

In the distant thunder's rumbling
A warning, and a howling
As in a howling, and a howling
Furrows upon the sea.

The air grows dark and murky—
The clouds are thick and black—
The sea is dark and murky—
The air grows dark and murky—
The clouds are thick and black—
The sea is dark and murky—

MANHATTAN, June 19, '56

A courier from Lawrence has just handed me the subjoined communication. Of Mr. Cummings I shall speak hereafter:—

TOPEKA, Kansas, June 14, '56.

Mr. James Redpath, Lawrence.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to your favor of the 10th inst. I will give you a condensed statement of the case you refer to.

On my returning to the Territory from Ohio, in May last, I was intercepted at Lexington, Mo. A small party of the citizens of that place came on board the boat, who made themselves rather officious by questioning travelers as to their destination—most of them Southern men bound for Kansas. A gentleman (?) stepped up to me and held out his hand, remarking at the same time, "I certainly know you." I replied "I was possible. He asked me to accompany them into town. I declined stating that the boat would not put out and I would not have time. He then turned to the others who came on board with him and held a short consultation, when he again turned to me and said "Accompany us into town."

I replied that would not.

He then said, "By God, you shall go! Come on boys lay hold!"

And, seizing the action to the word, they laid hold of me and forcibly dragged me off the boat. Resistance would have been useless. They took me to a hotel, where I was introduced to several distinguished (?) individuals after which we got supper. About 9 or 10 P. M. that night I was invited to take a walk. Of course I was obliged to comply. After walking about two miles we met another party, who were carrying a pole. Very little was said to me; the talking was all among themselves aside. I was asked, if I was returning to the territory? What business I intended following when there.

I had forgotten to state that the leader of this party of hell hounds had seen me when I was a prisoner in the camp, at Leavenworth, K. T., in December, 1855. At that time I had in my possession two hundred copies of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, which with other papers were stolen and destroyed.

To the inquiry as to my future business in the Territory, my reply was that I would probably be connected with a paper. They talked apart for some time. Finally the leader told me: "We owe you a small debt, and it might as well be paid now as at any other time."

I replied, "As you see fit, gentlemen, I am in your hands."

"He takes it cool," said one of them; another said, "It's a damned shame, boys let him loose. No!" said a half-dozen others. Let us fix him and give him a starter toward abolitionism.

"Good!" cried the crowd.
Well Sir, addressing me, "will you please direct yourself of your clothing."

I would rather be executed.
No parleying now Sir, take hold boys, lay his garments one side, and let everything be done in an orderly manner."

My clothing was removed from off my body and instead I was covered with a sticky substance, generally called "tar;" feathers were poured over it. I also received several severe strokes from persons in the gang, and was otherwise brutally treated. My clothes were then given to me and I was told to depart. I started toward St. Louis; walked about fifteen miles between that and morning, pulling up at a wood yard soon as the boat came along, and I took deck passage for St. Louis, where I tarried a few days, and again took passage for Kansas City. I arrived safe. Several interesting scenes took place on my second trip, but I will not give them here.

Yours for Freedom in Kansas,
J. F. CUMMINGS.

EDITORS TABLE.

THE WHITE CHIEF.—A Legend of North Mexico—by Captain Mayne Reid.

The scene of this wild legend is laid far in the interior of the American continent—North Mexico, not scarcely a century ago. It is a romance of thrilling interest, and boldly and vividly portrays the character of the yet uncivilized Indians and the wily Spanish Cavaliers. The increasing popularity of the Author will at once give it a wide circulation, and the general information diffused throughout the work will make it quite an acquisition to the Library. It is beautifully illustrated with engravings.—Price $1.25; published by DeWitt and Davenport, New York, and for sale by H. W. Anger at the Post Office.

SIX MONTHS IN KANSAS.—By a Lady.

This work, accompanied by a beautiful map of Eastern Kansas contains a series of interesting letters, written by a lady who emigrated to that territory in September, 1855, and remained there till April, 1856. They give an interesting account of the troubles in Kansas, of the outrages perpetrated by the Border Ruffians, and the sufferings endured by the Free State settlers. Published by Jewett, Proctor & Co., Cleveland, and for sale by H. W. Anger, at the Post Office.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Philadelphia correspondent of the New York Evening Post speaks very confidently of Fremont's prospects in Pennsylvania.

He says that the gallant adventurer of California cannot help carrying the State. He remarks:

"The withdrawal of Edward G. Webb, Esq. from the editorial chair of the Pennsylvanian is full of significance, as to the harmony of the democratic party. The daily defection from its ranks, except my former ones, I could name hundreds who already avow their determination not to vote for Buchanan, or the platform upon which he runs, besides hundreds of good Democrats who will give him a death shot, and vote for Fremont and Dayton. The repeal of the Missouri Compromise has not only thinking, and they are going now to act independent of party shackles or rules. 'Regular Nominations' have lost their charm. Buchanan, Douglas and Pierce, by their foreign and domestic policy have alarmed the whole middle and southern States—the dangers of disastrous wars at home and abroad, have aroused the people who have resolved to go for a change. The honorable David Wilmot gives a good account of his old Congressional district, and informs of thousands of Democrats who intend to vote the Republican ticket for President and Vice President."

"A Yankee genius was expatiating upon the utility of an india-rubber ship which he was inventing when an old sailor exclaimed, 'No, no! I will never do. An india-rubber ship would rub out all the lines of latitude and longitude to say nothing of the equator!'"

"The Border Ruffian presses, which are busy in attempting to prove that Fremont is a Know Nothing because the Anti-Slavery K. N. support him, will bear in mind that almost the entire K. N. party of the south go for Buchanan, therefore, by a parity of reasoning Buchanan is a K. N."

The N. Y. Tribune of the 5th ult. says:—Coupons on Milwaukee City Bonds issued to Green Bay Milwaukee and Chicago Railroad will be paid at No. 52 Wall street, and at the same place will be paid a 4 per cent dividend on the stock of that Company.

"A Republican National meeting will be held at Lebanon on the 10th inst."

"A witty editor, who has just failed, says he did it with all the honors of war, and retired from the field with colors flying—shrieking flag fluttering from two windows and the door."

"A traveler writing from the coast of Africa, says, 'the people here die very fast, and the sheep have enormous tails.' There's brevity."
